"FAST STEPPERS"

Universal Two-Reel Series

Starring BILLY SULLIVAN

No. 5—"The Hot Dog
Special"

MA MCGREGOR, big-hearted owner of a race-track hot dog stand, goes turf crazy and spends her savings on a stable of five horses, including Tarcutta; and hires "Losing" Jones as trainer. The Kid, whom Ma has befriended in his frequent poverty-stricken periods, plots with his pal, Henry, to save some of the old woman's money.

After much persuasion, the Kid cajoles the Jockey Club stewards into reviving the long-obsolete two-and-one-half-mile event. He does this on the chance that Ma's horse, Tarcutta—an Australian horse, best at long distances—may win the purse. Just before the race, Ma's hot dog stand is attached by the sheriff. Tarcutta, after a gruelling race, romps in ahead of the favorite. Having bet their last few hundred dollars on Tarcutta, Ma and her friends mop up on a 15-to-1 shot.
